

Listening across a community

What group and community work teaches about one-to-one conversation.

7 lessons. After each one, answer its question here in a few honest lines. Then try it in one real conversation that week, and come back to note what happened.

LESSON 1 OF 7

A Vicar on Showing Up for People

Where in your community do people go unheard? Who listens to them now?

This week I tried it with:

LESSON 2 OF 7

Stories Across Difference

Where have you seen a community heal something one person couldn't?

This week I tried it with:

LESSON 3 OF 7

Stories Told Through Beadwork

Where in your community do people go unheard? Who listens to them now?

This week I tried it with:

LESSON 4 OF 7

Vishavjit Singh on Telling His Story

What would change if you asked 'and then what happened?' one more time than usual?

This week I tried it with:

LESSON 5 OF 7

Being Heard: Life with an Intellectual Disability

Where have you seen a community heal something one person couldn't?

This week I tried it with:

LESSON 6 OF 7

Women Building Community in Africa

What does it take for a stranger to trust you enough to tell you something true?

This week I tried it with:

LESSON 7 OF 7

Suicide Prevention in Native Communities

What does it take for a stranger to trust you enough to tell you something true?

This week I tried it with:
